DIDN'T TAKE PLACE

The Assignee's Sale of O'Reilley's Booze Suddenly Stopped.

ANATTACHMENTSLAPPEDON

Between the Assignment and the Attachment There's Going to Be a Law Suit--ike Quinn Doesn't Like It.

The sale of the effects in the saloon owned by George O'Reilley, who made a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors last Saturday evening, did not take place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock as advertised by Assignee Ike Quinn. This was no fault of Mr. Quinn's, however, as at the advertised hour be opened the doors to hold the sale. A considerable number of people quickly en tered the saloon on its being opened un-doubtedly for the purpose of making purchases. Some of them came all the way from Butte. But just as everything was about to commence an attachment was served on the place by an officer, acting under the orders of Sheriff Quigley and Deputy Sheriff Tracy, both of whom were in Deer Lodge on business connected with their official positions. The attachment was in favor of Thomas Ford and John O'Rourke the owners of the building in which Mr. O'Reilley had been conducting his business, had been conducting his business, and was made to recover the sum of $181 for rent, which they claim to be due.

The sale was stopped by Mr. Quinn under protest, and it is understood a suit will be brought to recover damages, since it is claimed that the assignment could not be broken and that it was illegal to serve any attachment under the circumstances. Mr. Quinn says that he wants it understood that he did not care to take the matter upon his hands in the first place and only did so at the earnest solicitation of Mr. O'Reilley, who told him that in having him act as assignee both he and his creditors would get a square deal. Mr. Quinn says he had intended to act in the capacity of assignee in an honest and straightforward way. He says that he has consulted good legal authority and has been advised to bring a suit for damages, and this he intends to do. The sheriff's man is now in possession of the saloon and its effects, but Mr. Quinn still retains the keys.

Musin To-Morrow Night.

Musin To-Morrow Night,

Of Ovide Musin, who appears at the opera house to-morrow night, the New York Musical Courier says: Despite the decidedly inclement weather an audience turned out to welcome "Ovide Musin at the Academy of Music. M. Musin, who is deservedly popular, has not appeared before a metropolitan audience for two before a metropolitan audience for two years, but that he was not forgotten was very evident by the warm manner in which he was received. He played, in addition to the Mendelssohn violin concerto, a new "Caprice de Concert" of his own, a bright, sparkling composition in E minor, which was written to show off the soloist's many excellent points. Numberless recalls compelled M. Musin to play two additional selections, which he did in a manner that literally brought down the house. With the help of Mr. Van Stucken and a good orchestra the concert was made exceedingly interesting."

A Pleasant Evening

A very pleasant evening was spent on Monday at the residence of Colonel O'Leary on Oak street by a number of his friends. Games of different kinds were indulged in and a number of fine musical selections were rendered by nembers of the party, after which an elegant repast was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rooney, Miss Haight, Mrs. Wilton and son, Judge Rockwell, Judge Brennan, M. Abern, K. McKuiken and Dr. Spellman.

Smashed the Glass.

While slightly under the influence of liquor at an early hour this morning a couple of men tried to fall through one of the windows in the front door of J. C. The boys forgot that it is not a good thing to drink too much in this dry

The Cadets Make a Fine Showing. The cadets of the High school to the number of 15 were out yesterday after-noon under the command of Principal Stone. The boys marched from the school down Main street to the music of snare drum, which was played by one of the boys. A very creditable showing was made, and some of the military manoeuvers which were gone through with precision, would do credit to some of a professed military organization.
